

Video for Libraries

Resources

Instruction

www.storyguide.net

StoryGuide is your source of tips and advice about creating great videos. It includes many instructional videos covering lighting, audio, and gear.

tv.adobe.com

For those working with Adobe products, tv.adobe.com has numerous instructional videos that cover everything from editing, to special effects such as Rotobrushing.

Stock Resources

footage.shutterstock.com

Subscription model site with a large collection of royalty-free video to be used in your projects.

www.stockfootageforfree.com

The quality is more hit or miss than paid for sites, but simple footage can be found free at stockfootageforfree.com.

www.soundbible.com

Not the easiest to search, but many sound effects to add to your collection. Soundbible. If you are not in a hurry, you may request a special sound effect to be added to the collection.

www.soundjay.com

No search functionality built into the site, but a large repository of different sound effects and all royalty-free.