From the Editor ........................................................................ 4

OLA / WLA Conference Highlights:
Author Bowls Over Conference Crowd .................. 5
By Margaret Thomas

Researcher Studies Wiki Users .......................... 6
By Rayette Sterling

Outreach ideas at the Library Program Showcase ...... 7
By Julie Miller

A Picture’s Worth a Thousand Words – Unless... ..... 8
By Rayette Sterling

Basic Book Repair .............................................. 9
By Lynne King

Middle-Schoolers and Demigods .......................... 10
By Brian Soneda

Snapsots of the Conference .............................. 16

Wayfinder Points to Connected, Visible
Washington Libraries ........................................ 11
By Will Stuivenga and Ahniwa Ferrari

Association Awards Student Scholarships ............. 13
By Nancy Huling

Legislative Update:
Team Washington Reminds Federal Lawmakers
to Support Libraries ........................................... 14
By Kristie Kirkpatrick

Libraries Struggle to Balance Privacy and Patron Access ............................................ 18
By Sue Anderson

A Conversation with Freshmen Legislators .......... 26
By Sue Anderson

News Briefs ...................................................... 19

WLA Communiqué:
Association Recognizes Award Winners ............... 20

Who's on First?
Courts Limit Public Employees Free-Speech Rights .... 22
By Mary Wise

The Solinus Page
Describing the Conference Experience ................ 24
By Angelina Benedetti

I'd Rather Be Reading
They have a Word for it... .......................... 30
By David Wright

Cover: Retired librarian Susan Madden reads to the crowd at the Awards Luncheon (see page 20 for more about Madden).
Except where noted, conference photos in this issue are by Troy Wayrynen of Vancouver, Washington.