Digital Surveillance and Immigrants

Threat Modeling

What do you want to protect? These are your assets.
Who do you want to protect it from? These are your adversaries.

What information do you want to keep private?
Who is likely to try to access it without your consent?
What are the consequences if you fail?
What are you willing to do to protect that information?

Resources for Librarian Privacy Advocates Working with Immigrants

The American Civil Liberties Union | www.aclu.org
Articles of Particular Interest:
"Amazon Met With ICE Officials to Market Its Facial Recognition Product" (Oct. 2018) |
https://www.aclu.org/blog/privacy-technology/surveillance-technologies/amazon-met-ice-officials-market-its-facial
"Documents Reveal ICE Using Driver Location Data From Local Police for Deportations"
(March 2019) | https://www.aclu.org/blog/immigrants-rights/ice-and-border-
patrol-abuses/documents-reveal-ice-using-driver-location-data
"ICE Using Powerful Stingray Surveillance Devices In Deportation Searches" (May 2017) | https://www.aclu.org/blog/privacy-technology/surveillance-
technologies/ice-using-powerful-stingray-surveillance-devices
"Stingray Tracking Devices: Who's Got Them?" (November 2018) |
https://www.aclu.org/issues/privacy-technology/surveillance-technologies/stingray-tracking-devices-whos-got-them

The Data Privacy Project | dataprivacyproject.org
A project designed to support frontline library staff as they respond to patron needs regarding digital privacy or data profiling issues. For more information on threat modeling for different types of library patrons, check out their learning module called Risk Assessment.

The Electronic Frontier Foundation | www.eff.org

A non-profit focused on defending civil liberties in the digital world. For guides on privacy software and tools, review Surveillance Self-Defense: Tips, Tools and How-tos for Safer Online Communications (https://ssd.eff.org). Translated into 10 languages. Also offers numerous articles on everything from Surveillance Technologies to Knowing Your Rights when your devices are being searched.

The Library Freedom Project | https://libraryfreedomproject.org

A non-profit providing library workers with the skills necessary to promote values of librarianship like privacy, intellectual freedom, and democracy. To see the past and current cohort's course materials, check out the Library Freedom Project's Wiki (https://libraryfreedom.wiki). To watch videos of speakers for the first cohort, head to Library Freedom Institute on Vimeo (https://vimeo.com/libraryfreedominstitute).

Witness | https://witness.org

Useful Resource: Using Facebook in an Era of Mass Deportation |
https://lab.witness.org/using-facebook-in-an-era-of-mass-deportation/
A comprehensive Q & A about Facebook privacy concerns for immigrant communities compiled by Witness Media Lab, a project focused on using eyewitness video to advocate for human rights. This resource is also available in Spanish.

In the News

DaSilva, Chantal. "ICE Just Launched a $2.4M Contract with a Secretive Data Surveillance Company That Tracks you in Real Time." Newsweek, 7 June 2018, https://www.newsweek.com/ice-just-signed-24m-contract-secretive-data-surveillance-company-can-track-you-962493

Contact:
Sarah White I Adult Services Librarian I Eugene Public Library: sbwhite@eugene-or.gov
Presentation slides at http://tinyurl.com/yyjyyz63