1935 Mandate → WA Geology Library

“...to collect, archive, and provide access to materials on the geology of Washington State”

How did I end up here?

- BS Geology University of Utah SLC, UT
- MLIS University of Washington Seattle, WA

Yes...we have a very fun collection

- Maps
- Data (GIS, LiDAR)
- Theses/dissertations
- Geotechnical reports
- Journals
- Rocks & fossils on display
- Educational materials

Who are my patrons...everyone!

- WGS/DNR Staff
- The Public: students, academics, geologists, rockhounds, homeowners

My job involves...

- PIG/Reference
- Online tool training
- Collection Development
- Cataloging
- Work with kids
- TsuInfo Alert Editor

I get the most interesting questions...

- Do I have a meteorite?
- Where will I find gold?
- Am I safe where I live?
- Can I get a Washington rock sample?

Geologic Information Portal

what he's looking for. The librarian makes certain of that.

GOOD SERVICE

Gertrude Burwell, the librarian, has served in that post for five years. She was transferred there after serving as receptionist in the main lobby of the highway department for a number of years. And she's developed a library which does credit to the highway department.

In addition to her duties as librarian, Miss Burwell operates the addressograph machine and performs various other services for all who ask.

MANY SOURCES

Miss Burwell wants everybody in the highway department to know that she'll get the material the customer wants, if it isn't in
