Making Headlines

Call for Submissions for the Fall Issue of *Alki: The Future of Library Collections

Collections are a core component of a library and central to a library's mission - is your library prepared for the future? How is your library balancing print collections with growth in digital content? Is self-publishing changing what your library selects? Are you circulating non-traditional items, or do you have plans to do so in the future? Are collaborations with different organizations on the horizon? Are your patrons utilizing collections in new and unexpected ways? Has your materials budget kept pace with changes in circulation? Don't miss this great opportunity to share your story about the future of library collections with your colleagues throughout the state.

Please send your article idea(s) to alkieditor@wla.org and include:

- Your name and position/library:
- Description of the article:
- Suggested title:
- Estimated length (in pages): each page = 750 words (or fewer with graphics):
- Intent to include graphics (photo, logo, other)
- Contact information:

The deadline to submit articles for the November issue is October 14, 2016. Please see the Instructions for Contributors for more details.

If you'd like to discuss your ideas further, don't hesitate to contact editor Frank Brasile at alkieditor@wla.org.
