Resources for Libraries during COVID-19 Closures

On Monday, March 23, Governor Jay Inslee issued a stay-at-home order for Washington State. Many schools and libraries had already closed for the safety of their staff and patrons, a move encouraged by the Washington Library Association, the American Library Association, the Association for Rural & Small Libraries, and many more.

Here are some free resources, webinars, and information that may help in the weeks ahead:

Join the Washington Library Association and the Washington State Library in celebrating Library Snapshot Day, April 19-25, a full week of advocacy for our libraries, archives, and special collections across the state!

American Library Association to Cancel 2020 Annual Conference

In a press release on March 24, ALA announced plans to cancel their June 25-30 conference in Chicago, IL due to the spread of the Coronavirus.

"ALA's priority is the health and safety of the library community, including our members, staff, supporters, vendors and volunteers," said Wanda K. Brown, ALA president. "As the COVID-19 pandemic unfolds, it's become clear that in the face of an unprecedented situation, we need to make tough choices."

2020 will mark the first time in 75 years that ALA has not held an Annual Conference. The last cancellation took place in 1945 as World War II neared its end.
Show us a “day in the life” at your library or repository! We want to see your programs, your collections, your people (with their permission, of course!), your catalogs, your shelves, your study spaces, your meetings... All library things!

PNLA LEADS Survey

The Pacific Northwest Library Association (PNLA) LEADS committee is beginning to plan the next institute and would like your input on how to proceed with future LEADS sessions. Members of the Pacific Northwest Library Association are asked to complete this survey by April 1.

Have news to share? Please send it to the WLA office by Monday to be included in that week's digest. Please include "For WLA Wednesday" in the subject line.
