Spring Issue of Alki: Keeping Count
Our latest edition of Alki, largely written before the Covid-19 outbreak, focuses on the broad theme of Keeping Count. As our library world continues to change rapidly, some of our efforts have remained the same. We strive to protect patron privacy; we assess our work by tracking circulation statistics; we maintain databases and examine our budgets. In this edition, you will see explorations of themes surrounding keeping track of information and data. Dig into an exploration of data privacy! Enjoy learning about the role of data-driven assessment! Delve into the work that libraries in Washington State are doing in preparation for the 2020 Census! Our usual wonderful columns and numerous other articles round out our March 2020 issue.

Alki Journal Survey

The Alki Editorial Committee is seeking to understand its readers. Who we are reaching, what sort of libraries you work for and are interested in, and what kind of content you would like to see in future editions of Alki? Please take 5-7 minutes to respond to this survey.

Resources for Libraries During COVID-19 Closures

WLA now has a page on wla.org listing personal and professional resources for library staff. If you have any resources you'd like to share with the Washington library community, please email them to info@wla.org with the title "COVID-19 Resources".

Due to the rise in Zoom hijacks as increasing institutions move online, it is important to be prepared. Please see this infographic for tips about protecting your virtual meetings and what to do if a Zoom bomb happens to you.
Join the Washington Library Association and the Washington State Library in celebrating Library Snapshot, April 19-25, a full week of advocacy for our libraries, archives, and special collections across the state!

#LibrarySnapshot is a "day in the life" at your library or repository. A chance to show off your programs, collections, and spaces. This is also an opportunity to—with their permission—share your staff and patrons’ stories. With many libraries across Washington closing their doors to deter the spread of COVID-19, Library Snapshot Day will be more important than ever to show off the work that library staff do out of the library.

Please note: while the WLA Office has tried to confirm the status of job postings, there may be hiring freezes in place. Please contact the institutions directly for the most up to date information.

If your institution is hiring and has a posting for libraries in the WLA community you would like to submit, please email info@wla.org and indicate "For WLA Wednesday" in the subject line.

Save the date for the WLA 2020 Annual Conference in Spokane, WA, October 7-10!

Libraries of all types are facing challenges as we head into the future. While we need to hold these challenges firmly in our field of focus, we simultaneously need to be scanning the horizon for new opportunities. There are oceans of possibilities surrounding inventive and important programs. New methods of reaching our constituents. Changes to our physical spaces. Changes in funding. Incorporating new technology. And so on. By reflecting on our collective past and remembering that libraries have always faced change head on, let’s come together with 2020 vision to share our clearest and sharpest visions for the future!
