Call for Photos: What are you working on?

Share your personal or professional creations with the Alki community by submitting a photograph and short caption of a project that is in progress or recently completed.

Submissions are due March 2, and will be featured in the March issue of Alki: The Washington Library Association Journal. Library groups, staff, students, retirees, and friends of Washington libraries are all welcome to submit.

Examples may include:

- book displays
- new or updated spaces
- artistic expressions of all forms
- written experimentation, including poetry, prose, scripts, or song lyrics
- posters for upcoming events

To submit, fill out this form. If you have questions or are experiencing issues with the form, contact Ray Zill at alkieditor@wla.org.
Join LIFE's February Coffee Break

WLA's Leadership Is For Everyone (LIFE) Section will host an informal coffee break for leaders at all levels on Feb. 24 at 4 p.m. Bring your coffee, tea, or drink of choice and connect with other library leaders in Washington! Log-in to the WLA Meeting & Events Calendar with your member profile to access meeting information.

Looking for inspiration? Simon Sinek, author of Leaders Eat Last and Start with Why, gave a great talk recently on leadership in tough times.

Want to become a member of LIFE? Joining the section is free with membership! Add the section to your existing WLA membership or request to join by contacting the WLA Office.

Call for WLA Merit Award Nominations

With the switch from a fall to spring annual conference and #WLA2022 approaching, the WLA Merit Awards are back again! On behalf of the 2022 Merit Awards Committee, we're pleased to share that the School Library Division Awards have also returned for this year's awards season.

The WLA Awards offer the opportunity to recognize and highlight the outstanding work that has been ongoing in Washington libraries.

What library achievement did you see in your community or workplace that you'd like to see celebrated? Examples can include, but aren't limited to, outstanding service in the areas of:

- Programming (virtual, educational, community building)
- Outreach to users
- Services
- Access to technology
- Access to collections
- Serving the needs of people who were vulnerable, underserved
- Providing innovative ways to deliver services, materials
Library workers at all levels and in all types of libraries are eligible. Nominees do not need to be WLA members (with the exception of the Emeritus Award and the WALE Award). Additionally, nominators do not have to be WLA members. Award winners will receive a complimentary year of WLA membership!

To nominate an outstanding individual or group for an award, please complete the WLA Award Nomination Form by Wednesday, March 16.

Winners will be notified on April 4, announced in WLA Wednesday on April 6, and celebrated on May 6 at the WLA Conference's Awards Reception in Bellevue.

If you have questions or wish to discuss eligibility requirements, please contact the WLA Office.

Online Tracking Service Grant

[Image]

Apply for WSL Online Tracking Grant

Washington State Library (WSL) has officially launched the application and LibGuide for the WSL Online Tracking Grant.

WSL will reimburse awardees for an online tracking service. Your library may be reimbursed up to $1,000 per year for three years. Public and tribal libraries in Washington State are eligible. This is a non-competitive grant, and everyone who applies will be eligible to receive this award. Libraries who already subscribe to a tracking service prior to this grant are eligible, as well as new subscribers.

Learn more about the grant and the application process by visiting the grant's LibGuide. The next deadline for requesting the grant is March 4. If you have questions, please contact wslgrants@sos.wa.gov or sara.white@sos.wa.gov.

This program is supported by funding provided by the federal Institute of Museum and Library Services administered by the Library Services and Technology Act, through the Washington State Library, a division of the Office of the Secretary of State.

Teacher-Librarian Professional Development Feedback 2022

Do you work in a school library? The Washington State Library (WSL) is currently in the process of planning a one-day professional development opportunity tailored to the needs of individuals who work in school libraries. WSL has created a survey to gauge training needs and interest. Access the survey.

The survey will take approximately 10 minutes to complete, and all data collected will be kept private and will only be used in aggregate. If you have any questions, please contact WSL Youth Services Consultant Sara White.
ACRL & PLA: "Love Library Data: Project Outcome 101"

In celebration of Love Data Week 2022, the Association for College and Research Libraries (ACRL) in partnership with the Public Library Association (PLA) will host a free webinar centered on outcome measurement in libraries, today, Feb. 16 at 11 a.m. PT. Register in advance. The webinar is free to attend.

Participants will be introduced to the Project Outcome toolkit and will have the opportunity to ask questions of the presenters. It is recommended that participants register for Project Outcome for public or academic libraries and review basic materials in the toolkit prior to the webinar.

If you have questions, please contact plawebinars@ala.org or 800-545-2433 ext. 5PLA (5752).

Youth Services Critical Conversations Club: Community Asset Mapping

Join Washington State Library with presenters Leah Larson and Verena Getahun of Minnesota State Library Services for the next YS3C meeting on Feb. 17 from 10-11 a.m. Register in advance.

If you think of your community as a jigsaw puzzle, asset mapping is the process of identifying the pieces – seeing where they connect and who the library might connect with. Join the meeting to learn about and explore asset mapping. This session will provide background and tools that you can use to identify the assets in your community.

If you have questions, please contact Sara White at sara.white@sos.wa.gov.

This program is supported by funding provided by the federal Institute of Museum and Library Services administered by the Library Services and Technology Act, through the Washington State Library, a division of the Office of the Secretary of State.

Join the American Library Association (ALA) for this month's ALA Connect on Feb. 24 at 11 a.m. PT, for a discussion on sustainability and climate action in libraries. [Register in advance.]

Guest speakers Uta Hussong-Christian (Oregon State University) and Michele Stricker (New Jersey State Library) will highlight how their systems have supported communities adapting to climate change. They will be joined by ALA President Patty Wong, in conversation moderated by Rebekkah Smith Aldrich (Mid-Hudson Library System).

Attendees are encouraged to [submit their questions] in advance. Please contact membervalue@ala.org with questions or for more information.

NicheAcademy: "Copyright for Librarians: What You Need to Know"

Originally presented Feb. 9, library professionals are invited to watch this free webinar recording on easy principles to use in navigating copyright issues. In the webinar, Sara Benson, Copyright Librarian and Assistant Professor at the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign, covers copyright basics, copyright exceptions, and fair use. [View the webinar.]

Library 2.0: "Awkward Conversations: How to Handle Difficult Discussions with Patrons"

Join Library 2.0 with host Dr. Steve Albrecht on Feb. 24 at 11 a.m. PT for this webinar about handling awkward conversations with patrons. [Register in advance.]

Attendees will learn about assessing patron behavior and its impact on the library; increasing employee assertiveness in response to inappropriate behaviors; determining if issues merit a call to police, medics, or the fire department; staying consistent with enforcement goals, and more.

Cost for attendance is $99/person; however, attendance is free to those with individual or organizational all-access passes. For more information, please contact admin@library20.com.

Have news to share? Please send it to the WLA office at newsletter@wla.org by Monday to be included in that week’s digest.
