Call to order
- Online meeting reminders

Board Meeting Procedure Reminders
- All WLA board meetings are open and participation is encouraged from any attendees
- Only nine WLA Board members are eligible for voting

Approve minutes from January 2020 meeting
- No corrections needed. Minutes approved.

New Business
- Leadership Reports: follow-up questions/updates
  - Jane provided an update from PNLA: they’re considering cancelling till next year due to budget. Also considering virtual conference (though they are concerned people might be too oversaturated with Zoom meetings by then)
    - Brianna and Kate are planning to reach out to Rick at PNLA.
- Academic Virtual Conference Recap
  - After refunds, the Academic conference made a profit of $4,055 after refunds.
- 2020 Strategic focus: EDI
  - Talking w/ CiKeithia about an in-person workshop for WLA leadership sometime in Fall after the conference for about 35 people.
  - ASGCLA is dissolving within the next 6 months so there will be a gap in activities related to disabilities and access within ALA.
  - Most resources and library websites are not providing translation online so even trying to get an online library account is almost impossible for non-English speakers right now, when they most need the access.
  - There are studies that low-income neighborhoods are being targeted by ISPs in terms of throttling service.
  - Over 70% of talking book & braille library patrons are over 65 (30% over 85) and many, many live in skilled nursing homes or care facilities and don't have access or the ability to be using the internet and we aren't able to mail out our books right now. It is really difficult.
  - Broadband access, SHLB (Schools Hospitals, Libraries, Broadband Coalition)
    - E-Rate requirements are being softened like opening access points after hours.
- 2020 Legislative Report
  - Sales tax & BNO tax are dropping drastically
  - Retail and car sales dropping
  - Governor Inslee looking at how to reopen construction
  - Talked with Marissa Rathbone about getting Spokane school librarians to present to them (Washington State School Director's Association) about the value of libraries.
  - It’s recommended that libraries go in for a big budget ask for next year.
- ScLD bill died in the house appropriations committee.
- 6670 allowing up to two Discover Passes per patron.
- Board members should email Carolyn to organize a meeting with Ormsby and Bilig in Spokane.

- WLA Division/Section Hosted Zoom RT Discussions
  - Encouraged folks to sign up
  - Putting the registration info on the COVID resources page

- Library Snapshot Day
  - Coincides with National Library Week
  - Visual photo sharing type of event
  - Maybe combine with Snapshot day (via Elizabeth)
  - Hoping to get twitter access to @WLA_School to provide location for School Librarians to post and then retweet @walibassn (via Rebecca)

Old/Ongoing Business and Updates

- ALA Councilor - ALA Updates
  - June 24-26 Virtual Conference
  - Forward Together initiative
  - LITA, LLMA, ALCTS have voted to dissolve and combine as CORE.
  - Patty Wong for ALA President 2020
  - ALA has COVID-19 page with survey data, updating pandemic resources, webinar
  - Discussed making MidWinter all virtual

- Member needs assessment, April 29th

- ACRL-WA Update
  - Will still be the ACRL-WA state chapter within WLA.
  - ACRL is a 501(c)6 and needs to dissolve as such so we can draft an MOU.
  - MOU will go to ACRL board and WLA board.

Closing questions or comments

Meeting adjourns
Meeting called to order at 3:02 pm.

Board Meeting Procedure Review
- All WLA board meetings are open, and participation is encouraged from any attendees.
- Only nine WLA Board members eligible for voting.

Approve minutes from October 2019 meeting
- With a correction of the misspelled word “Alaska,” Rhonda moves to approve the October 2019 Board meeting minutes. Ahniwa seconded. Minutes approved.

Leadership Reports: follow-up questions/updates
- There is a new EDI question in the leadership form.
  - Greg asked if WLA has any trainings or meetings for EDI work for both leadership and membership. He would like to see time set aside for EDI questions within WLA.
  - These kinds of trainings, conversations, and resources will be incorporated into the coming year and the consulting work that WLA will undergo in the coming year. CiKeithia Pugh from Equity Matters, along with Emily Keller and Lucretia Robertson, offered a keynote and session around EDI at the Virtual Conference. More to come.
- It’s OK if there’s nothing to report for certain questions, especially for new leaders.
- If reports are submitted late, they will be sent out with the meeting minutes next week.

2020 budget (vote)
- The Finance Committee is recommending this 2020 budget for approval by the WLA Board.
- “Accounts” are along the left, which are the different types of revenue and expense categories. Grouped into three columns, “Classes” are along the top, which are the classifications that each account is broken up into. For example, the expense account of “Printing” can be split into multiple classes depending on the purpose—“Conference” for the conference program, “Member Services” for marketing materials, and “Admin” for general office printing.
- For any line items that may be unclear, the Finance Committee and office have added explanatory comments.
- All changes from the previous budget have been highlighted in yellow. Changes include:
  - One-time correction to three Divisions (Academic, Public, Special) to balance Divisional funds
- Increase to budget lines for conference speakers and meals (resulting from Jonny Johnson’s financial analysis of WLA in 2019)
- Increased funding to reimburse members for travel, including a new account called “Member Expenses”
- School Library Division budget for 2020

- Joe asked about costs of AV, which really are that expensive at conference facilities.
- A few total formulas appeared to not be adding up. Hannah fixed the formula errors during the meeting.
- Danielle moved to approve the 2020 WLA budget. Steven Seconded. Budget approved.

Virtual Conference Recap

- According to the evaluation results, the conference went well. Almost no technical issues.
- WLA was able to keep costs low for attendees while also making a healthy profit.
- Recordings are available for all attendees and still available to purchase for those who couldn’t attend.
- This will be a great model for future virtual conferences and events.

2020 Strategic focus: EDI

- In Emily’s response to Greg, she addressed the EDI work that WLA has begun. Her focus as 2020 president is EDI work within WLA.

Section Discussion

- Many Sections are inactive and haven’t had leadership for multiple election cycles. According to WLA’s bylaws there are procedures for sunsetting inactive sections. If those procedures were always followed, many Sections would have been sunsetted by now.
  - Some of these Sections, though without leadership and member activity, represent important topics that need to be represented within WLA (e.g. Intellectual Freedom).
  - “Active” is subjective, especially since Sections are now free.
- In WLA’s Bylaws, it’s stipulated that each Section needs three elected steering committee members. These are difficult to fill.
- Leaders from WLA’s Sections have already met with leadership to discuss the current setup and Bylaw requirements of Sections. Section chairs asked to send emails to Section membership to solicit feedback.
  - From that meeting, Section leaders are recommending to create an easier entry for participation and leadership. They don’t want to take anything away from those sections that are active and thriving. Hope to see more involvement by making it simpler to get involved.
- Ahniwa thinks that having empty sections doesn’t serve a purpose, even if the topics are important.
  - Danielle also thinks having empty sections isn’t great for WLA. Topics like intellectual freedom are across all work in libraries, should be incorporated into all WLA groups. Might topics like IF don’t need to have a separate section?
  - Ahniwa is interested in finding easier ways to sunset, as well as easier, more organic ways to create new Sections.
  - Steven would like to look at the trends of active Sections over the years before the Board recommends Bylaws changes.
- The option that the Sections have discussed seems to be an interim step in between staying the same and sunsetting all struggling Sections.
  - Since this conversation already went on with Section leadership, the Board doesn't want to ignore those thoughts.
  - Section leadership recommended to adapt Bylaws to only require one elected position for each Section.
    - Additional scaffolding may be built from there for more active Sections, but it wouldn't be mandated by the Bylaws.
    - At minimum, that person will be responsible for monitoring the listserv, but can also do more.
● There is general Board agreement to move forward with the recommendation for this Bylaws change.
  ○ Language will be drafted and added to the packet of additional Bylaws changes.
  ○ Board will need to vote on Bylaws changes, then the membership will vote.

2020 Legislative Agenda/Library Legislative Day
● Carolyn is working to create updated position papers for WA Library Legislative Day on February 5.
● Unsure if we will be able to get any legislators
● At 1:30 pm, there will be a hearing on the senate version of the school library bill. A few WLA members will be testifying.
● School library technology bill
  ○ Related to increasing staffing ratio.
  ○ Amending this bill to drive more pressure on the discussion next year
● Digital equity bill (HB2414)
  ○ Amendments are being drafted as the bill moves through.
● Peer-reviewed journal access (SB5504)
  ○ Anticipate more support on this bill this session.
● Bill to eliminate odd-numbered year elections
  ○ Legislative Committee doesn’t want this to go through. It’s good to have as many opportunities for elections as possible.
● Cooperative programs with parks and libraries (SB 6670)

ALA Council/Reorganization
● Tracie Hall has been hired as new ALA Executive Director.
● ALA is working on getting their books in order, related to the sale of their headquarters in Chicago.
● ALA endorsed Crosby Kemper for appointment to the IMLS, approved by senate.
● ALA reorganization: https://forwardtogether.ala.org/
  ○ SCOE (Steering Committee on Organizational Effectiveness) is working on improvements and reorganizations to the structure of ALA.
  ○ The Spring 2020 Implementation team will make recommendations for ALA Annual in June
  ○ There will be a webinar on February 13.
  ○ Implementation will be moved back 6 months to a year.
  ○ Council has to vote on it twice before the changes go to members for a vote.
  ○ Steven has concerns that state chapters will not have the same level of representation.
    ■ Brianna was in some of the meetings.
    ■ Rhonda serves on Council. Rhonda has concerns for representatives of ALA chapters, divisions, etc.

Member needs assessment, April 29th
● WLA member needs assessment coming this spring.
● Since 2010, WLA has participated in a continuing needs assessment with the Washington State Library.
  ○ Will work closely with WSL to make sure the survey is timed correctly and efforts aren’t duplicated.

Conference program proposals needed
● The RFP is open for all conference sessions.
● New this year: night tracks, different program lengths (45-minute and 75-minute sessions).
● WLA leaders are encouraged to submit proposals and spread the word.

ACRL merge
● ACRL members are having conversations about funds and identity.
● They are moving ahead with member vote.
• Upcoming meeting with ACRL and academic leaders to talk about where would fit within WLA if the merge moves forward.

Meeting adjourned at 4:52 pm.

WLA Strategic Planning and Special Projects

- Discussions of ALA chapter responses to the COVID-19 pandemic, and share relevant information and best practices with WLA.
- These principles into my professional and personal life. Both ALA and my current employer are also pursuing EDI initiatives, with similar goals of increasing representation and engagement.

Legislative Planning Committee

- Advise WLA Board on library issues under consideration by the Washington State Legislature. Recommend and implement Association activities with state and federal elected officials. Communicate opportunities for member engagement to WLA Advocacy Committee.
- Report 2020 Legislative Session results and anticipated 2021 issues to WLA Board. Initiate planning for committee recruitment for 2021 legislative session.
- Committee members participated in weekly conference calls with WLA Lobbyist Carolyn Logue during session. Members attended Library Day and connected with state legislators in support of WLA priority items, including maintaining WLA’s position on the state Early Learning Advisory & Accountability Council.
- Recruit diverse committee members from WLA Divisions.
- The Legislative Committee operates on a two-year cycle to match the Washington State Legislature biennium. Prior to the start of each legislative biennium, the Legislative Committee contacts WLA President and Executive Director.

The Professional Development Committee (note change from Cont. Ed. listed in form) supports professional development activities for and by WLA members.

We will accept scholarship applications and meet to determine those applicants which will receive scholarships.

As a committee we examined the scholarship application questions and process, rewriting some questions and clarifying the application. We examined the rubric we used for determining the scholarship winners and revised that to align with our questions and experiences last year.

We are promoting the scholarships in as many venues as possible, hoping to encourage as many applicants as possible. We were discouraged that there were no applicants for the John Stanford scholarship last year, which is intended for a person of color, so we are putting more effort

We use the resources of the WLA office and our own personal connections to find new members.

We are following our mission by promoting scholarships and grants, supporting WLA members at all stages of their careers.

We will have awarded scholarships to WLA members.

| WALT Chair   | Tami Masenhammer | The primary purposes of Washington Library Trainers shall be to share information, communication, learning, and support for those involved in or interested in:

- Training, career development, and continuing education for library staff
- Education and instruction for library users
| Develop training guidelines and initiatives for libraries | No activities so far developing or planning of trainings for libraries | emails to members keeping them informed of plans and meetings, virtual meetings to increase participation | at least one virtual meeting |
When the 2020 Legislature began on January 13, most thought it would be a fairly typical short, non-budget year session. Although it was fast moving with thousands of new bills and big ideas being discussed, as we hit the first cut off dates it was proving to be a fairly normal legislative session. The mid-February budget announcement brought a revenue forecast that showed over $1 billion extra in revenue coming in for the current biennium with nearly $4 billion extra for the four-year forecast. Things looked pretty good.

But things changed quickly as it became clear that a looming health crisis had moved across the ocean and our state became the epicenter of the first major wave of deaths attributed to COVID-19. This changed the dynamics in the Legislature – both in terms of budget negotiations and in terms of bills that were priorities. In the end, although the Legislature had planned to end on time anyway, the final days appeared to have a very different set of urgency.

The Legislature adjourned Sine Die on March 12, the constitutionally required day for adjournment. The next day Governor Jay Inslee announced the first of many major proclamations closing schools, shutting down businesses and urging residents to stay at home to battle the novel coronavirus. In addition, Governor Inslee announced an end to public bill signings.

Budget Highlights

The Operating Budget that finally passed the Legislature increased spending by 961 million for a total budget of $53.5 billion in 2019-21. This included increased spending for special education, homelessness and various programs for Children, Youth and Family Services. The final budget also included $100 million to cover costs associated with the coronavirus outbreak. The budget left a fairly high level in reserve – nearly $3.5 billion which will hopefully help our state better weather the coming budget crisis.

When the final budget was signed by Governor Inslee on April 3, he was forced to do some significant vetoes to ensure more money was available for the battle against COVID-19. The $445 million vetoed included projects that were directed at Department of Health – because the Governor felt that Department of Health needed to focus on the coronavirus fight instead. In addition, Inslee vetoed $100 million that was dedicated to additional K-12 school counselors.

The Capital and Transportation budgets did not suffer the same veto fate as the operating budget because the projects funded will provide jobs and revenue as we move out of the crisis. The Capital budget appropriated $89.5 million total, increased bonding capacity and authorized $75.6 million in expenditures from dedicated accounts. The focus for the Capital budget included Housing and Homelessness programs, early learning, behavioral health, education construction projects, environmental clean-up projects and habitat conservation.
The Transportation budget had a $453 million loss of revenue this biennium. It made up for this loss by delaying funding for projects that were not ready to start yet, reducing rail capital projects until the next budget cycle and delaying WSDOT Public Transportation program grants until the 21-23 biennium.

WLA SESSION MOSTLY POSITIVE WITH SOME DISAPPOINTMENTS

WLA had a short but busy session, fortunately mostly positive but sadly we lost our major ask for school libraries. Below is a quick summary of our key activities this session:

Victories!

SB 6305 – Library Districts: This bill was a key priority for both the Public Library Districts and WLA so we worked together to get this passed. The bill extends the maximum term of nonvoter approved general obligation bonds for a library district from six to 20 years. It also allows a county legislative authority to submit a single ballot proposition for establishing a library capital facility area and authorizing financing of library capital facilities. This bill allows public library districts to do more with low-interest bonds and will reduce confusion for voters by allowing one vote rather than two.

Thanks to the hard work of Senator Marko Liias, hiccups surrounding wording in the bill to ensure constitutionality and timing for libraries going out for bonds close to the implementation dates of the bill were addressed. The bill passed the Senate 41-7 then passed the House 73-23. The Senate concurred with the House amendments and the Governor signed the bill. It takes effect June 11, 2020. Any elections already in the works before that date are not impacted.

SB 6312 – Nonprofit Fundraising Tax: This was a simple bill sponsored by Senator Hans Zeiger that makes the currently library fundraising tax exemption permanent. This what is known as a “good little bill.” It passed both the Senate and the House almost unanimously (1 NO vote in each house) and was signed by the Governor.

SSB 6670 – Discover Passes in Libraries: The final bill that WLA was instrumental in helping to pass was a bill to provide money so that State Parks can provide at least two library discover passes, once each calendar year, to any library that submits a request. State Parks is not required to replace any library discover pass that is lost or not returned. State Parks should prioritize the distribution of any additional library discover passes to libraries that also check out outdoor equipment, such as backpacks, binoculars, field guides, and other equipment that will enhance the patron's outdoor experience. The bill passed both houses unanimously and was signed by the Governor. It takes effect on June 11, 2020. Fortunately, the funding for this bill survived the Governor’s vetoes.

Disappointments:

SHB 2637/SSB 6371 – Expanding School Library and Information Technology Programs: WLA’s School Library jumped into session with both feet to pass a bill that would remove language in the current law allowing school district to avoid spending resources on school libraries. Washington is a forward-thinking state with a law that clearly states school boards should provide resources for school library information technology programs – and with FTE money and the $20 per student for library materials coming from the state, the resources certainly exist. The problem is the law requiring school boards to provide the resources includes the language “as they deem necessary” – which many districts are using to avoid having important school library services that benefit teaching and student success. WLA’s bill would have removed this language and also added provisions to help determine what is happening with school libraries now and how to help districts that do not have libraries get them set up. The original bill also included additional funding for school librarians but the cost of this provision ($245 million) was too large for legislators to support.

Although WLA provided great testimony, resources and grassroots support, in the end legislators did not move the bill forward for a vote. The reason we were given was that they wanted to focus on putting more effort into school counselors. They did pass a bill requiring school counselor programs but in the end the Governor vetoed the money appropriated for additional school counselors.

SHB 2414 – Digital Equity: WLA testified and worked with Rep. Mia Gregerson on this bill that focused additional money and efforts to create grants to help increase access to broadband and digital services for people of color and disenfranchised persons around the state. This bill also had a large price tag and did not pass out of the House Appropriations Committee. Fortunately, we were able to get $50,000 into the budget to help the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the Washington State Office of Equity develop a plan for a program that would promote skills, knowledge and awareness around issues of digital equity for families with school age children. That money survived the Governor’s veto and is extremely needed now that we know the difficulties families are having with access to digital learning.

SHB 2661 – Child Care and Early Development: This bill would have expanded accessible, affordable child care and early childhood development programs across the state. WLA highly supported this approach to expanding early learning but opposed a change to the make up of the state Early Learning Council. In the bill, they changed the current WLA representative position to be a position for an organization “supporting literacy.” WLA testified in the committee about the importance for libraries in early learning beyond simply literacy. After our testimony the bill was quickly amended to reinstate the WLA position on the Council. Unfortunately, this bill too was considered “too expensive” and did not survive the House Appropriations Committee. Early Learning was a significant recipient of funds in the operating budget but did suffer under the Governor’s COVID-19 vetoes.

ESSB 5504 – Peer Reviewed Journal Access: WLA thought this would be the year to finally pass the Peer Reviewed Journal Access bill, particularly with the extra dollars in the initial budget forecast. We testified in the Senate and then again in the House. We worked with the sponsor, higher ed institutions, and the Secretary of State’s office to try and pass this bill but, in the end, it too died in the House Appropriations Committee and was not resurrected in the budget.
Media Literacy Budget Proviso: WLA worked with Senator Marko Liias to draft and get put in the budget $70,000 in grant dollars to help with media literacy projects in library programs. This proviso and the dollars were vetoed as part of the Governor’s COVID-19 vetoes.

MOVING AHEAD TO 2021

WLA remains ready to fight again for school libraries, peer reviewed journal access, expanded broadband, digital equity, media literacy and all the other battles we have not won yet. However, next year will need to be a time of clear focus and recognition of the budget challenge that will be faced after we get through the shut-downs that have occurred this year. Businesses that provide tax revenue to the state are not selling goods. People who are unemployed will continue to need assistance. It will behoove WLA to focus the 2021 Legislative Agenda on things that we know benefit our communities. School library information technology programs provide the resources and infrastructure for a quicker move to digital learning for students, academic libraries assist with the same in the higher education environment, and public libraries provide broadband, workforce, business assistance, and other connections for the state’s citizens. All of these put libraries at the forefront of our state’s economic recovery. Working with legislators and ensure that our legislative asks reflect this bigger picture will be very important. Ensuring that libraries are able to get the resources they need to provide these important services will be very important. Grassroots will be the key.
